

The Samarth Care program brings trusted, 'family-quality care' to the member senior citizens right where they live, through our own care-managers and curated service-partners. The program helps children living away from their parents and elders to provide them always-on support and back-up with the assurance of quality and transparency of delivery.